[URGENT: RESPONSE REQUIRED WITHIN 24 HOURS to keep your instances accessible]

Dear Amazon EC2 Customer,

We've received a report that your instance(s):

Instance Id: i-c1c86528
IP Address: 54.173.56.29

has been posting, distributing, or hosting unlicensed copyright protected content. This is specifically forbidden by our Customer Agreement, located athttp://aws.amazon.com/agreement/. A copy of the complaint identifying the allegedly infringing content is below.

Please remove the allegedly infringing content within 24 hours of receiving this notice. If you do not remove the content, we will take whatever steps are necessary to disable access to the content, up to and including suspension of your account.

It's possible that your environment has been compromised by an external attacker. It remains your responsibility to ensure that your instances and all applications are secured. The link http://developer.amazonwebservices.com/connect/entry.jspa?externalID=1233 provides some suggestions for securing your instances.

If you believe the content referenced in the complaint is not infringing, you may provide a written counter-notice to our Agent for Notice of Claims (see address below). The counter-notice must include the following information:

1. Identify the material that was removed or disabled, and the location where it appeared before it was removed or disabled;
2. A statement by you declaring under penalty of perjury that you have a good faith belief that the material at issue was either misidentified or mistakenly removed;
3. Your name, address and telephone number;
4. A statement that you consent to the jurisdiction of the federal district court for the judicial district in which your address is located, and that you will accept service of process from the person who provided the complaint set forth above (if you are located outside of the United States, you must state that you consent to the jurisdiction of any United States federal district court in which we may be found); and

5. Your physical or electronic signature.

Please be aware that false statements in your written counter-notice may lead to civil or criminal penalties.

Our Agent for Notice of Claims of Copyright Infringement can be reached as follows:
